Normative Hierarchy in International Law Dinah Shelton 291

International Organizations: Then and Now Jose´ E. Alvarez 324

Nongovernmental Organizations and International Law Steve Charnovitz 348

Peace Agreements: Their Nature and Legal Status Christine Bell 373

The term “peace agreement,” a key device for negotiating an end to internal conflicts, remains largely undefined and unexplored. This article describes the various patterns of peace agreements to illustrate how the parties attempt to “legalize” their commitments so as to induce compliance. It argues that peace agreement legalization demonstrates a coherence that merits its consideration as an emerging lex pacificatoria or “law of the peacemakers.”
